Lumen Gentium Award—Austin Diocese 2015

On Tuesday, June 16, 2015, at the Mayborn Center in Temple, Texas, Bishop Joe Vasquez, of the Diocese of Austin will recognize some members of the laity—individuals or couples with the award: “Lumen Gentium Award.” This award was introduced during the episcopacy of Bishop Gregory Aymond each year. But after due consultations, the diocese through Bishop Joe Vasquez agreed to hold this award every other year.

This award is named after one of the sixteen documents of the Second Vatican Council: The Dogmatic Constitution on the Church—(Lumen Gentium) - Light of the World. The meaning is self-evident, because by our baptism we all are called to holiness; hence, we need to strive for our salvation. Writing to the Pastors in the Diocese of Austin, on this year’s “Lumen Gentium Award” Bishop Joe Vasquez states, “The Lumen Gentium Award oftentimes recognizes men and women in our parishes who provide good examples to others, invite others into Catholic stewardship and promote the Gospel message in their everyday lives. It can also be a vehicle to illustrate the nature of the local Church—the diocese—and to raise awareness of everyone’s baptismal call to service.” Having said that, I would mildly add that this award also is actually for all Christian to win, because we are all called to become Christ-like in our lives, so that we can become light to the entire world. However, there is also a need to have one or two individuals from among us to symbolize this award. Winners of this award ought to be a model to others; would have the love of Christ and interest of the Church and love of neighbor at the center of their hearts.

They need to be ready to sacrifice their personal pride, ego and worldly interest to stand by the Church and her teachings always and at all times—The Truth. They need to realize that the church is made up of the saints and sinners, therefore, should not be seen to undermine the interest of the Church because of one or two weaknesses they may perceive against the Church, but should rather pray and offer constructive suggestions to the Church. Never should they be anti-Church in anyway or form. Hence, these virtues need to be observed by those who may have won this award in the past and those to win it in the future. Come Tuesday, June 16, 2015. Bishop Joe Vasquez will give the “Lumen Gentium Awards” to Mrs. Mary Ralya, from our parish, St. Ann Catholic Church, Somerville, Texas and Mrs. Mary McCorvey from our Mission, Blessed Virgin Mary, Old Washington on the Brazos, Texas, for their exemplary Christian qualities. On behalf of all our parishioners, I say congratulations to these women!
God Bless you!

Second Collection Today

All parishes in the Diocese of Austin will take up a special collection to provide disaster relief for the many people and communities that have been devastated by the recent floods, tornadoes and damage that have hit various parts of our Diocese. Funds from this collection will go to the Catholic Charities of Central Texas to aid in the response to the various needs of the community. For more information regarding the disaster fund, please go to our diocesan website www.austindiocese.org or contact Barbara Budde at (512)949-2471.

Fortnight For Freedom

The Fortnight for Freedom will once again take place from June 21 to July 4. It is a two-week special period of prayer, study, catechesis, and public action which celebrates a series of great martyrs who remained faithful in the face of persecution. The Bishops of the United States have called all the faithful to celebrate the Fortnight for Freedom: Freedom to Bear Witness which is the theme for this year—freedom to bear witness to the truth of the Gospel. For more information go to <http://www.austindiocese.org/fortnightforfreedom>.

(Prayer)

St. Michael the Archangel
St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl
about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.
